DAMAGES AND BENEFITS

Awards Made in the Proposed Extension of Sixteenth Street.

The Jury of Appraisers Submits a Report, to Which Two of the Seven Dissent on the Question of the Increased Values Accruing.

The jury of appraisers appointed by the District Court several months ago to determine the value of real estate along the line on the proposed extension of Sixteenth Street yesterday submitted its report to Justice Haguer. The total amount of damages assessed against the pieces or parcels of land lying along either side of the line of improvement and extension is $729,952.29, and the benefits $108,834.75. The report as a whole is endorsed by Albert A. Wilson, G. W. Moss, John A.

Hamilton, John S. Larcombe, and E. Francls Riggs. Frederic L. Moore and Jesse B. Wilson, however, while consenting to the damages assessed, state that they do not agree with the other appraisers as to the amount of benefits awarded the owners of adjacent property.

The report is based on the result of the investigation of the appraisers concerning the value of and the effect of the street extension on about 250 pieces of real estate lying along the line of improvement. The names of the property owners, the quantity of land condemned, the damages assessed, and the benefits awarded are

The opening of the first afternoon meet of the season at the Coliseum will take present outlook the races will eclipse anything of the kind that has been witnessed in this city for several years. The feature of the programme will be a twenty-mile match race between Jimmy Michael and Watson Coleman, of men are said to be in excellent condition and are prepared to lower the twentymile record for a six-lap track, and inervening miles.
Michael, behind his motor machines yesterday afternoon, covered in his trial spins the first mile in 1:38, second 1:37, third 1:36, fourth 1:37, fifth 1:36, sixth 1:32, seventh 1:314. Coleman was also out reeling off miles in fast time, but is holdreeling off miles in fast time, but is holding back for today's race.

In the amateur events, an unusually large number of riders are entered and fast riding and close finishes are looked for. The events will include a one-mile novice, one-mile amateur handicap, and a police pursuit race, open to members of the local police force. The prizes in this event are unusually handsome and have been donated by local firms. The first prize is a silver water pitcher, donated by the Castelberg Jewelry Company, second prize, pair bicycle shoes, Saks & Co., and third prize, solid silver penknife by R. Harris & Co. In the handicap race the first prize is a handsome silver tea service, second prize silver toilet set, and third prize, pair gold cuff buttons.

ANDOVER TOO CONFIDENT.

Georgetown Drubs Mains, Who Succeeded Campbell in the Box. BOSTON, May 29 .- Georgetown in the seventh and eighth innings today won from the strong Andover team. The Massachusetts boys played fine ball up place today at 2 o'clock, and from the to the seventh inning. In that inning Mains was sent in to pitch for Campbell. The latter pitcher had twirled in elegant shape and only allowed the Blue and Grey four hits in six innings. The reason for his being taken out was no doubt on account of the confidence the Andover Boston, paced by four motor cycles. Both boys had in their being able to win, as the score was then 4 to 3 in their favor. Mains proved easy, as Georgetown swung on to him in the seventh for four hits, which, coupled with a base on balls and an error, gave them four runs. In the eighth they again jumped on Mains and ran up three more scores, which placed them safe. Fay, who pitched the first six innings for Georgetown, was very effective, only allowing five hits, and those were all scattered. He gave signs of weakening in the seventh, and he was taken out, Cox replacing him. The latter player only allowed one hit for the remainder of the over made two more in the eighth, which at this stage of the game frightened the Blue and Grey boys to some extent. Without doubt the Bay State boys are the snapplest lot of players that Georgetown has gone up against this year.

O'Hara and Moran were all over the field throughout the game. They took part in two pretty double plays, in one of which Conners assisted. Huiscamp and O'Brien played the best ball for the local Andover went to bat first. Flanigan was given his base. Huiscamp struck out, and O'Brien flew out to Apperious. Mathews then drove one out to deep right, which Apperious fumbled, Flanigan scoring and Mathews going to third. Campbell struck out. In the first Georgetown was blanked, and as was Andover in the first of the second.

The visitors made two in the second. Walsh led off with a three-bagger, O'Hara flew out to O'Brien, while Golden was given a life at first. Dowling connected with a corking single. Walsh and Golden scored, while Dowling was thrown den scored, while Dowling was thrown out at second by Matthews. Fay went out to Scribner. For the next three innings Georgetown was blanked. Andover tied in the third. Farson cracked one down to Fay, who made a wild pitch to first. Flanigan went out, Huiseamp hit to centre, scoring Farson, the former hitter being doubled at second with O'Brien. Georgetown scored one in the sixth on a base on balls and Walsh's hit to centre for two. The local men went them one for two. The local men went them one better in the sixth. O'Brien singled and goored on Matthews' double, went to third on Mains' out and scored on Trude's out to first.

In the seventh there was nothing doing, but in the eighth O'Brien singled. Mathews was safe on Dowling's error, Mains was given a base. Trude was safe on Conner's error, while O'Brien scored. An error by Cox allowed Mathews to score. The others were easy outs. In Georgetown's half of the seventh and eighth they woke up and began to pound Mains, who was substituted for Campbell, making seven runs in two innings. The score: ANDOVER. H. PO.

HERRERA EASILY OUTCLASSED. Knocked Out by McGovern in the

Fifth Round. SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Curiosity to see what Aurelia Herrera, the Bakersfield mystery, would do against Terry McGovern, drew a very large audience at Mesers, 105; Carbunele, 105; Kamara, 104; Alsike, 12; Zeus, 107; Lake Fonso, 102; May Do, 85; Regatta, 108; Lake Fonso, 108; May Do, 85; Regatta, 109; May Do, 85 chanics' Pavilion tonight, where, under the auspices of the Twentieth Century Club, McGovern was billed to fight Herrera for twenty rounds at 124 pounds. The mystery went out in the fifth round. Fully 10,000 people were present. After the preliminaries and at 9:53 clock McGovern and Herrera entered the ring, but though the corners had already been arranged at Corbett's, Herrera insisted on again tossing. He won McGovern fought his fight with Gardiner. McGovern's seconds were Sam Harris, Dan Dougherty, and J. J. Dukelow. Herrera's seconds were George Green, Frank McConnell, and Harry Slater. It was announced that Morris Ransch, of Chicago, challenged the winner of tonight's fight. The referee was Phil Wand, of the Olympic Club. At 10:05 the opening round was called and Herrera showed much eleverness in evading several blows for the head by McGovern. Then McGovern's fighting spirit awoke and he landed a succession of victous right and left-hand blows which fairly smothered Herrera. But the Spaniard recovered rapidly and was making a fair showing when time was called. It was easy to see, however, that he was Third round-McGovern rushed his man, but Herrera clinched at every opportunity. He seemed strong, but timid. Then ting him at will. He forced Herrera to the ropes and hammered him over the head and body. McGovern's steam was gone and he could not knock his man out, but it seemed that Herrera would not be able to last more than another round. McGovern rained blows on Herrera, hit-Fourth round—Herrera clinched at every opportunity and despite his awkwardness, he landed several stiff blows on McGovern's neck. McGovern followed his man, trying to get in a knockout blow, but was prevented by the clinches of the Mexican. McGovern continued to land punishing blows on the head and body and he soon had Herrera dazed, but the Bakersfield man showed pluck and received several severe punches in the neck and body. McGovern showed bad condition, his wind being poor and his blows lacking force.

Fifth round—McGovern opened the round with the left on the law, which dropped his man. Herrera took eight seconds. Then he was dropped twice and was counted out. Fourth round-Herrera clinched at ev-
